

PURPOSE

PARTNERS UNITED FOR RESEARCH PATHWAYS
ORIENTED TO SOCIAL JUSTICE IN EDUCATION

RESEARCH CONFERENCE

Tuesday, December 3

5:00 - 7:00 PM

FSU Alumni Center, Grand Ballroom

free parking provided

Keynote address:

“RESEARCH INTENTIONS”

Novell Tani, Ph.D.

Assistant Professor, Department of Psychology, Florida A&M University

Poster presentations by 2019 PURPOSE fellows:

Kiah Albritton

Black Girls' at FAMU DRS Freedom Schools
Conceptualization of Their “Scholar” Identity

Makayla Bentley

African American Parents' Likelihood to Seek Help in Wellness Dimensions & Scholar's Perceptions of Wellness

Arie Christon

Academic Performance, Performance Modifiers & Racial Centrality in HBCU Students

De'Keria Hunter

Do Literature Circles Impact Social Justice and Reading
Motivation: A Critical Examination

Sierra Johnson

Efficacy and Accessibility of Nutrition Intervention
Programs for High Poverty Counties in Florida

Camille Lewis

Can a Wellness Program Contribute to Student Teacher Resilience?

Madelyn McClarey

Movement with Purpose: Building Equity within the Single-Gender Classroom

Malaya Monk

Control Yourself: Relations between Functions of Aggression and Emotion Regulation

Benjamin K. Reimer

Trends in Empathetic Reading for Freedom Students

Satcha Sanon

Poverty Level and its Influence on Students' Willingness to Pursue a Higher Education

Imelda Theodore

Voices: The Psychosocial Effects of Black Authorship At the FAMU DRS Freedom Schools

Collin Wigfall

Children's Perspective of Parents' Parenting Style
Relating to Self-efficacy and Leisure Activity
Engagement

Steven C. Williams II

Capital Identity Projection, Academic Performance, and Academic Achievement among Historically Black College/University Students

Sponsored by

Funded by the Institute for Education Sciences
(Award Number R305B170017)

RSVP by 11/26 at bit.ly/purpose-conference